jen - can you please take a look at these...share them with PRD and DanP and get back to Heather? I'm OK with these logos as long as the label has all the other required child-resistant related language. If everyone agrees with me, please let Heather know they're OK. If not, you can let her know that we have to discuss this internally. Thanks!!!!

John –

Reckitt Benckiser's marketing people want the Agency's opinion on some other child resistant logos.

Hal,

Attached are the revised safety icons. Can you please review and let me know if it is ok?

Thanks,

Nikhil,

Here are the revisions to the d-Con Safety Icons; we changed the wording to "Child Resistant."
Please review.

best regards,

mark cassella
